East of Nakba (70)

Part III. Chimera

Chapter 70 An endless journey through time and space (2)

The time when the Chimera woke up was one day that it found a suitable environment for survival. No one knew when and where it took place. The Creator who was somewhere in the universe only knew that. The Creator sent the Chimera to the destination and dissolved its sleep. The Chimera began to start a new activity somewhere in the universe.

The Creator controlled entire regeneration process of Chimera. No one other than the Creator didn't seem the process as a sudden or accidental event. The Creator was called by human beings as 'God', 'Allah' or 'Yahweh'. But the name didn't matter.

Having left the Earth, the Chimera was now heading straight for the Creator through the darkness with absolute zero degree and gravity in outer space. Nobody could trace the figure of the Chimera from Earth. It was physically and optically impossible to follow an ultra-microscopic Chimera in a dark space. The figure had to be lost sooner or later.
