East of Nakba (74)

Part III. Chimera

Chapter 74 Neo Galaxy (3)

The Creator didn't fear the extinction of the human beings. He feared that human beings jeopardized the same destiny to other species. That would be resulted in the extinction of all species on the Earth. He feared the death of the Earth. One Israeli doctor was about to transform the Galaxy into monsters. Dr. Girgo, the first genetically engineered scientist, named the mutated monster Chimera. He himself was actually a monster.

The Creator got very angry about the scientist and the people who supported him. At the same time, the Creator decided that he had to stop immediately the stampede of human beings which would occur in the near future. He put the Chimera back to the original Galaxy, and added a small new function to its genes. The Creator produced a new type of Galaxy, Neo Galaxy. He then programmed the Neo Galaxy to return to the Earth. He released it into the space.

The Neo Galaxy went back into the dark universe. The universe was controlled by the space and time. The space spread to the backward and forward, right and left, and up and down. The time flowed from the past to the future. The Neo Galaxy run through space at incredible speed.

The Neo Galaxy returned to space and hibernated. He headed for the Earth. It was not of his own will, but a program that the Creator put into his genes.
